SELNET ALERT 39

Dear SELNET member,

We remind you of upcoming events:

- SELNET Meeting and ESMO 2025

We invite you to participate in the SELNET Meeting, which will be held on Saturday, October 18, at 12:30 p.m. CET (ESMO Registration Hall).

It will be an excellent opportunity to share and raise awareness of the work of SELNET members, exchange experiences, strengthen scientific collaboration within the network, and identify new opportunities for joint projects.

- Poster Presentation by Dr. David (Brazil) – Reminder

We would also like to remind you of Dr. David's poster presentation, based on the results of our survey of SELNET members on barriers to healthcare in Latin America.

➔ Date: Sunday morning, 20 October
➔ Location: ESMO Berlin 2025

This work reflects the reality of sarcoma care in our region and highlights the importance of international collaboration to improve access and quality of care.

- II SELNET-VyDA Symposium - October 28, 2025

We are pleased to remind you that on October 28, we will be holding the II SELNET-VyDA Symposium, a meeting dedicated to sharing advances and experiences in the diagnosis and management of vascular sarcomas.

It will be an excellent opportunity to update knowledge, exchange experiences, and strengthen collaboration between the different teams in our network.

We encourage you to actively participate and also to spread the invitation within your institutions, so that more professionals can benefit from this joint initiative between SELNET and the VyDA Association.

Please find attached the complete program.

Registration is required to receive the connection link:
